

GRADE 2: ORAL COMMUNICATION

OVERALL EXPECTATIONS

By the end of Grade 2, students will:
1. listen in order to understand and respond appropriately in a variety of situations for a variety of purposes;	Throughout levels 12-24
2. use speaking skills and strategies appropriately to communicate with different audiences for a variety of purposes;	Throughout levels 12-24
3. reflect on and identify their strengths as listeners and speakers, areas for improvement, and the strategies they found most helpful in oral communication situations.

SPECIFIC EXPECTATIONS

1. Listening to Understand

By the end of Grade 2, students will:
Purpose 1.1 identify purposes for listening in a variety of situations, formal and informal, and set personal goals for listening, initially with support and direction (e.g., to acquire information from a presentation by a guest speaker; to exchange ideas in a small-group discussion; to enjoy and understand poetry)
Active Listening Strategies 1.2 demonstrate an understanding of appropriate listening behaviour by using active listening strategies in a variety of situations (e.g., demonstrate understanding of when to speak, when to listen, and how much to say; restate what the speaker has said and connect it to their own ideas; express personal interest in what has been said by asking related questions: I like what _____ said about _____)	Throughout levels 12-24
Comprehension Strategies 1.3 identify several listening comprehension strategies and use them before, during, and after listening in order to understand and clarify the meaning of oral texts (e.g., listen for key words and phrases that signal important ideas; retell an oral text to a partner after a presentation; ask appropriate questions in order to make predictions about an oral text)
Demonstrating Understanding 1.4 demonstrate an understanding of the	The Stubborn goat, Last One Picked, Little Monkey, Lost in the Park, Making Bread, The Bakery, the Loudest Sneeze, Spike and the Big Dog,

Making Inferences/Interpreting Texts 1.5 use stated and implied information and ideas in oral texts to make simple inferences and reasonable predictions, and support the inferences with evidence from the text
Extending Understanding 1.6 extend understanding of oral texts by connecting the ideas in them to their own knowledge and experience; to other familiar texts, including print and visual texts; and to the world around them (e.g., talk about their own ideas and experiences related to the topic before listening; connect ideas from oral presentations to related school and community events and/or to other texts with similar topics or themes, including multicultural texts or texts in their own first language)	Throughout levels 12-24
Analysing Texts 1.7 identify words or phrases that indicate whether an oral text is fact or opinion, initially with support and direction (e.g., phrases such as I think...I feel... indicate an opinion rather than strictly factual information)
Point of View 1.8 identify, initially with support and direction, who is speaking in an oral text, and demonstrate an understanding that the speaker has his or her own point of view (e.g., people, events, and details are viewed differently by different people)
Presentation Strategies 1.9 identify some of the presentation strategies used in oral texts and explain how they influence the audience (e.g., the use of facial expressions helps the listener understand what is being said)

2. Speaking to Communicate

By the end of Grade 2, students will:
Purpose 2.1 identify a variety of purposes for speaking (e.g., to entertain the class; to establish positive personal and learning relationships with peers; to ask questions or explore solutions to problems in small-group and paired activities; to give directions to a partner in a shared activity; to explain to a small group the method used to solve a problem; to share ideas or information in large and small groups)

Interactive Strategies 2.2 demonstrate an understanding of appropriate speaking behaviour in a variety of situations, including paired sharing and small- and large-group discussions (e.g., make connections to what other group members have said; demonstrate an understanding of when to speak, when to listen, and how much to say)	Throughout levels 12-24
Clarity and Coherence 2.3 communicate ideas, opinions, and information orally in a clear, coherent manner using simple but appropriate organizational patterns (e.g., give an oral account of a current event using the five W's to organize the information; restate the main facts from a simple informational text in correct sequence)	When I Grow Up, Art, The School News, Looking After Chicks, If I Were Invisible..., Pig's Skin, animal communication, Hot Air Balloons, Sir Andrew the Brave, The Magic Dragon, Making a Flashlight, Sending Messages, Whales on the World Wide Web, The Cheerful Cricket, The Giant's Diary, The Runaway Nose
Appropriate Language 2.4 choose a variety of appropriate words and phrases to communicate their meaning accurately and engage the interest of their audience (e.g., use descriptive adjectives and adverbs to create vivid images for their audience)	Last One Picked, Lost in the Park, Sebastian's Special Present, Spike and the Bid Dog, Rose Moon, The Great Sebastian, Camping Out, If I Were Invisible..., Fairly Godmother's diary, The Ugly Duckling, Vote For Me!, Natural disasters, Litter, Benny and the Birds, Sir Andrew the Brave, The Magic Dragon, At the Cottage, The Sherman Shrinker, The Crow and the Daylight, Kim's Lunch, The cheerful Cricket, Dragons, The vinegar Bottle, An Apple Ad, Rock climbing, Finding Sunshine, the Giant's diary, Really Famous
Vocal Skills and Strategies 2.5 identify some vocal effects, including tone, pace, pitch, and volume, and use them appropriately, and with sensitivity towards cultural differences, to help communicate their meaning (e.g., adjust volume to suit the purpose for speaking and the size and type of audience)	Throughout levels 12-24
Non-Verbal Cues 2.6 identify some non-verbal cues, including facial expression, gestures, and eye contact, and use them in oral communications, appropriately and with sensitivity towards cultural differences, to help convey their meaning	Throughout levels 12-24
Visual Aids 2.7 use a few different visual aids, (e.g., photographs, artefacts, a story map) to support or enhance oral presentations (e.g., use a family photograph as part of an oral recount of an event; use a story map to retell a story)	Paint My room, Weather Watching, Little Monkey, Lost in the Park, The Loudest Sneeze, The Costume Party, Insects, Spike and the Big Dog, Rosie Moon

3. Reflecting on Oral Communication Skills and Strategies

By the end of Grade 2, students will:
Metacognition 3.1 identify, initially with support and direction, a few strategies they found helpful before, during, and after listening

and speaking Teacher prompts: “What questions can you ask yourself while listening to be sure that you understand what you hear?” “What can you do after listening to check that you have understood?” “How do you get ready to speak?” “While you are speaking, how do you check whether you are keeping the attention of your audience?”
Interconnected Skills 3.2 identify, initially with support and direction, how their skills as viewers, representers, readers, and writers help them improve their oral communication skills Teacher prompts: “How does listening make you a better speaker?” “How does viewing texts help you when you are listening?”

GRADE 2: READING

OVERALL EXPECTATIONS

By the end of Grade 2, students will:
1. read and demonstrate an understanding of a variety of literary, graphic, and informational texts, using a range of strategies to construct meaning;	Throughout levels 12-24
2. recognize a variety of text forms, text features, and stylistic elements and demonstrate understanding of how they help communicate meaning;	Throughout levels 12-24
3. use knowledge of words and cueing systems to read fluently;	Throughout levels 12-24
4. reflect on and identify their strengths as readers, areas for improvement, and the strategies they found most helpful before, during, and after reading.

SPECIFIC EXPECTATIONS

1. Reading for Meaning

By the end of Grade 2, students will:
Variety of Texts 1.1 read some different literary texts (e.g., poetry, folk tales, fairy tales from diverse cultures, stories, books from home in their first language), graphic texts (e.g., simple maps, charts, diagrams, graphs), and informational texts (e.g., “How to” books, non-fiction books about topics of personal interest, electronic texts, primary dictionaries)	Throughout levels 12-24
Purpose 1.2 identify several different purposes for reading and choose reading materials appropriate for those purposes (e.g., picture books for entertainment or reflection, familiar favourite books to build fluency, simple factual and visual texts for research, a picture atlas for information)	Throughout levels 12-24 in the Book Browsing Centres
Comprehension Strategies 1.3 identify several reading comprehension strategies and use them before, during, and after reading to understand texts (e.g., activate prior knowledge to ask questions or make predictions about the topic or story; use visualization to help clarify the sights and sounds referred to in the text; ask questions to monitor understanding during reading; identify important ideas to remember)

Ontario Alphakids Grade 2 Curriculum Correlation

Demonstrating Understanding 1.4 demonstrate understanding of a text by retelling the story or restating information from the text, with the inclusion of a few interesting details (e.g., retell a story or restate facts in proper sequence or correct time order, with a few supporting details; restate the important ideas from a short informational text about the life cycle of a butterfly in the correct sequence)	Throughout levels 12-24
Making Inferences/Interpreting Texts 1.5 use stated and implied information and ideas in texts to make simple inferences and reasonable predictions about them	Throughout levels 12-24
Extending Understanding 1.6 extend understanding of texts by connecting the ideas in them to their own knowledge and experience, to other familiar texts, and to the world around them	Throughout levels 12-24
Analysing Texts 1.7 identify the main idea and some additional elements of texts (e.g., narrative: characters, setting, problem, solution, events/episodes, resolution; procedure: goal, materials, method)	Throughout levels 12-24
Responding to and Evaluating Texts 1.8 express personal thoughts and feelings about what has been read (e.g., by using visual art or music to communicate their reaction)	Throughout levels 12-24
Point of View 1.9 identify, initially with support and direction, the speaker and the point of view presented in a text and suggest one or two possible alternative perspectives (e.g., develop a narrative or role play to present a story from the point of view of one or two minor characters)	Sebastian Gets the Hiccups, I'm on the Phone, When I Grow Up, Paint My Room, Spike and the Big Dog, The Elves and the Shoemaker, Mice in School, The Giant's Diary

2. Understanding Form and Style

By the end of Grade 2, students will:
Text Forms 2.1 identify and describe the characteristics of a few simple text forms, with a focus on literary texts such as a fairy tale (e.g., plot, characters, setting), graphic texts such as a primary dictionary (e.g., words listed in alphabetical order, simple definitions accompanied by picture clues or diagrams), and informational texts such as a "How to" book (e.g., materials listed in order of use, numbered steps, labels, diagrams)	Throughout levels 12-24
Text Patterns 2.2 recognize simple organizational patterns in texts of different types, and explain, initially with support and	Beaks and Feet, Art

direction, how the patterns help readers understand the texts (e.g., numbered steps help the reader follow a procedure or set of instructions correctly)
Text Features 2.3 identify some text features and explain how they help readers understand texts (e.g., table of contents, index, chart, illustrations, pictures, diagrams, icons)	Beaks and Feet, Weather Watch, Making Bread, Insects, Snails, The School News, Looking After Chicks, animal Diggers, We Need More Trees! Space Travel, My Shells, The Read Princess, Animal Builders, Fairy Godmother’s Diary, Vote for Me!, Natural Disasters, Sour Grapes, Litter, Under Sail, Animal Communications, Hot Air Balloons, Making a Flashlight, Sending Messages, The Sherman Shrinker, The Crow and the Daylight, Kim’s Lunch, Whales on the World Wide Web, Looking After the Young, Spiders, Looking Like Plants, Let’s Make Pancakes, Treasure Hunt, tigers, Trail Riding, Our Class Pet, Taking Care of Crocodiles, Sea Horse, Hunting in the Dark, Fantastic Frog Facts, Seashore Plants, Crabs, Animals that Sting, Dragons, X-Rays, Sea Giants, Mice in School. Butterfly Garden, Chocolate, Jellyfish, Rock Climbing, Caring for Bicycles, Amazing Living Things, Making Dips, Bird Families
Elements of Style 2.4 identify some simple elements of style, including voice, word choice, and different types of sentences, and explain how they help readers understand texts (e.g., descriptive adjectives help the reader visualize a setting; alliteration helps make ideas or characters stand out: red red robin)	Throughout levels 12-24

3. Reading With Fluency

By the end of Grade 2, students will:
Reading Familiar Words 3.1 automatically read and understand many high-frequency words, some words with common spelling patterns, and words of personal interest or significance, in a variety of reading contexts (e.g., the same word in different graphic representations such as: on charts or posters; in shared-, guided-, and independent-reading texts; in shared- and interactive-writing texts; in personal writing and the writing of their peers)	Throughout levels 12-24
Reading Unfamiliar Words 3.2 predict the meaning of and quickly solve unfamiliar words using different types of cues, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • semantic (meaning) cues (e.g., familiar words, phrases, sentences, and visuals that activate existing knowledge of oral and written language); • syntactic (language structure) cues (e.g., word order, language patterns, punctuation); • graphophonic (phonological and graphic) cues (e.g., letter clusters within words; onset and rime; common spelling patterns; words within words; visual features of words such as shape or size) Teacher prompt (for cross-checking of	Throughout levels 12-24

cues): “The word does have the same beginning sound (bright and brought) but does it make sense in this sentence?”
Reading Fluently 3.3 read appropriate texts at a sufficient rate and with sufficient expression to convey the sense of the text to the reader and to an audience (e.g., make oral reading sound like spoken language, with the appropriate pauses, stops, and starts indicated by the punctuation) Teacher prompt: “Can you make your reading sound just as if you are talking?”	Sebastian Gets the Hiccups, Last One Picked, Little Monkey, Lost in the park, The Loudest Sneeze, The School News, Looking After Chicks, Sebastian, Tidies Up, The Lonely Troll, The Great Sebastian, The Real Princess, Annie and the Pirates, The Ugly Duckling, Natural Disasters, Under Sail, Benny and the Birds, Pig’s Skin, Hot-Air Balloons, at the Cottage, don’t Worry, Stop That Dog!, Tigers, My pet Lamb, Elephant’s Truck, Stuck in the Barn, Mice in space, The three Wishes, Skating Fast, Princess Jo, Dancing Dudley, The Crow and the Daylight, The Vinegar Bottle, City and Country, Dragon’s Rescue, Mice in Space, The Giant’s Dairy, Firefighters

4. Reflecting on Reading Skills and Strategies

By the end of Grade 2, students will:
Metacognition 4.1 identify, initially with support and direction, a few strategies that they found helpful before, during, and after reading Teacher prompts: “What questions do you ask yourself to check and see whether you understand what you are reading? What do you do if you don’t understand?” “When you come to a word or phrase you don’t know, what strategies do you use to solve it? How do you check to see if you were right?”
Interconnected Skills 4.2 explain, initially with support and direction, how their skills in listening, speaking, writing, viewing, and representing help them make sense of what they read (e.g., reading a text independently is easier after discussing the topic with a partner and/or talking about it in a group) Teacher prompt: “How do discussions before reading help you get ready to read about new topics?”

GRADE 2: WRITING

OVERALL EXPECTATIONS

By the end of Grade 2, students will:
1. generate, gather, and organize ideas and information to write for an intended purpose and audience;	Throughout levels 12-24
2. draft and revise their writing, using a variety of informational, literary, and graphic forms and stylistic elements appropriate for the purpose and audience;	Throughout levels 12-24
3. use editing, proofreading, and publishing skills and strategies, and knowledge of language conventions, to correct errors, refine expression, and present their work effectively;	Throughout levels 12-24
4. reflect on and identify their strengths as writers, areas for improvement, and the strategies they found most helpful at different stages in the writing process.

SPECIFIC EXPECTATIONS

1. Developing and Organizing Content

By the end of Grade 2, students will:
Purpose and Audience 1.1 identify the topic, purpose, audience, and form for writing (e.g., a fairy tale to entertain another class; the procedure for fire drills to inform the class; a poster to promote a favourite book or movie)	Last One Picked, Snails, The elves and the Shoemaker, The School News, Rosie Moon, Sebastian Tidies Up, We Need More Trees!, Treasure Hunt, Elephant’s Truck, Silva the Seal, Crabs, Skating Fast, Princess Jo, Foods We Eat, Chocolate, An Apple Ad, Bird Watching, Sour Grapes
Developing Ideas 1.2 generate ideas about a potential topic, using a variety of strategies and resources (e.g., formulate and ask questions such as the five W's [who, what, when, where, why] to identify personal experiences, prior knowledge, and information needs; brainstorm ideas with a partner)	The Loudest Sneeze, Snails, The School News, Dancing Dudley, Our New Year Dragon, Jack and the Beanstock
Research 1.3 gather information to support ideas for writing in a variety of ways and/or from a variety of sources (e.g., from discussions with family and friends; from a variety of texts, including teacher read-alouds, mentor texts, shared-, guided-, and independent-reading texts, and media texts)	Weather Watching, Insects, Bird Families, Gelato, The Great Sebastian, the Real Princess, Staying Alive

Classifying Ideas 1.4 sort ideas and information for their writing in a variety of ways, with support and direction (e.g., by using simple graphic organizers such as webs or a Venn diagram)	Early One Morning, Weather Watching, The Duckling, Animal Diggers, Growing Strawberries, Our Class Pet, Taking Care of Crocodiles, Sea Horses, Animals that Sting, If I Were Invisible...
Organizing Ideas 1.5 identify and order main ideas and supporting details, using graphic organizers (e.g., a story grammar: characters, setting, problem, solution; a sequential chart: first, then, next, finally) and organizational patterns (e.g., problem-solution, chronological order)	Making Break, Animal Diggers, Let's Make Pancakes, Fantastic Frog Facts, Making Pots with Dad, Annie and the Pirates, the Can-Rolling Race, Litter, sir Andrew the Brave
Review 1.6 determine whether the ideas and information they have gathered are suitable for the purpose, and gather new material if necessary (e.g., use a graphic organizer to explain their material to a classmate and ask for feedback to identify gaps)	Trail Riding

2. Using Knowledge of Form and Style in Writing

By the end of Grade 2, students will:
Form 2.1 write short texts using several simple forms (e.g., a friendly letter; a factual recount of a scientific or mathematical investigation; a recipe describing the procedure for cooking a favourite food; directions for playing a game; a paragraph describing the physical characteristics of an animal; an original story or an extension of a familiar story, modelled on stories read; their own variation on a patterned poem; an advertisement for a toy)	Throughout levels 12-24
Voice 2.2 establish a personal voice in their writing, with a focus on using familiar words that convey their attitude or feeling towards the subject or audience (e.g., words that convey admiration for a character: a cool person)	Kim and the Clown, We Need More Trees!, The Last Muffin, The three Wishes, Skating Fast
Word Choice 2.3 use familiar words and phrases to communicate relevant details (e.g., a sequence of adjectives: The big, brown bear...)	Throughout levels 12-24
Sentence Fluency 2.4 use a variety of sentence types (e.g., questions, statements, exclamations)	Throughout levels 12-24
Point of View 2.5 identify, initially with support and direction, their point of view and one or more possible different points of view

about the topic
Preparing for Revision 2.6 identify elements of their writing that need improvement, using feedback from the teacher and peers, with a focus on content and word choice
Revision 2.7 make simple revisions to improve the content, clarity, and interest of their written work, using several types of strategies (e.g., reordering sentences to present information in a more logical sequence; adding linking words to connect ideas; replacing general words with concrete, specific words/phrases)
Producing Drafts 2.8 produce revised, draft pieces of writing to meet criteria identified by the teacher, based on the expectations	Throughout levels 12-24

3. Applying Knowledge of Language Conventions and Presenting Written Work Effectively

By the end of Grade 2, students will:
Spelling Familiar Words 3.1 spell many high-frequency words correctly (e.g., words from their oral vocabulary, anchor charts, the class word wall, and shared-, guided-, and independent-reading texts)	Throughout levels 12-24
Spelling Unfamiliar Words 3.2 spell unfamiliar words using a variety of strategies that involve understanding sound-symbol relationships, word structures, word meanings, and generalizations about spelling (e.g., spell words out loud; segment words into clusters of letters to hear onset and rime; sort words by common sound patterns and/or letter sequences; link letters to words: You hear with your ear; follow rules for adding endings to base words when the spelling doesn't change; use word meanings to help spell simple contractions and homophones: bear/bare)	Throughout levels 12-24
Vocabulary 3.3 confirm spellings and word meanings or word choice using a few different types of resources (e.g., locate words in alphabetical order by using first and second letters in a primary dictionary, on a word wall, or in an online picture dictionary)	When I Grow Up, Art, Last One Picked, The Bakery, The Duckling, Looking After Chicks, Animal Diggers, Chocolate, Making Dips
Punctuation 3.4 use punctuation to help communicate their intended meaning, with a focus on the use of: question marks, periods, or exclamation marks at	The Stubborn Goat, The Costume Party, The School News, Sebastian Tidies Up, We Need More Trees!, Cat and Dog, The Real Princess, Natural Disasters, Benny and the Birds, X-Rays, Amazing Living Things, Bird Families, The Story Zadig

the end of a sentence; commas to mark pauses; and some uses of quotation marks
Grammar 3.5 use parts of speech appropriately to communicate their meaning clearly, with a focus on the use of: proper nouns for local, provincial, and national place names and for holidays; the personal object pronouns me, you, him, her, us, them; adjectives to describe a noun; verbs in the simple present and past tenses; joining words (e.g., and, but); simple prepositions of place and time (e.g., under, with, before, after)	Sebastian Gets the Hiccups, When I Grow Up, Paint My Room! Lost in the Park, Sebastian Tidies Up, We Need More Trees! The Real Princess, Annie and the Pirates, Fairy Godmother’s Diary, The Ugly Duckling, Natural Disasters, Bird Watching, sour Grapes, Under sail, Benny and the Birds, A Present for dad, Pig’s Skin, animal Communication, Hot-Air Balloons, The Magic Dragon, At the Cottage, Making a Flashlight, Sending Messages, The Sherman Shrinker, the Crow and the Daylight, Looking After Their Young, Beaks and Feet, The Loudest Sneeze, The Costume Party, Insects, Snails, spike and the Big Dog, The Elves and the Shoemaker, Rosie Moon, My Shells, Cat and Dog, Staying Alive, The can-rolling Race, Dragon’s Rescue, Sea Giants, Caring for Bicycles, Amazing Living Things, Rare Bird, When the Bus Was Late
Proofreading 3.6 proofread and correct their writing using a simple checklist or a few guiding questions developed with the teacher and posted for reference (e.g., Does each sentence make sense? Are the ideas and information presented in a logical order? Does each sentence begin with a capital letter and end with a period, question mark, or exclamation mark? What resources can I use to check the spelling of a word if it doesn't look right?)
Publishing 3.7 use some appropriate elements of effective presentation in the finished product, including print, different fonts, graphics, and layout (e.g., use legible printing, spacing, margins, varied print size, and colour for emphasis; include a simple labelled diagram in a report; supply a caption for a photograph or illustration)	Throughout levels 12-24
Producing Finished Works 3.8 produce pieces of published work to meet criteria identified by the teacher, based on the expectations

4. Reflecting on Writing Skills and Strategies

By the end of Grade 2, students will:
Metacognition 4.1 identify some strategies they found helpful before, during, and after writing (e.g., use a writer's notebook to record ideas for writing, new and interesting words, graphic organizers that could be used again) Teacher prompts: “How do you generate your ideas for writing?” “What helps you to get organized for writing?”

Portfolio 4.3 select pieces of writing that they think show their best work and explain the reasons for their selection

GRADE 2: MEDIA LITERACY

OVERALL EXPECTATIONS

By the end of Grade 2, students will:
1. demonstrate an understanding of a variety of media texts;	Art, the School News, Looking After Chicks, space Travel, Vote For Me!, Natural Disasters, The Sherman Shrinker, Wales on the World Wide Web, Spiders, Tigers, Dragons, Mice in Space, an Apple Ad, Really Famous, Foods We Eat, Our New Year Dragon
2. identify some media forms and explain how the conventions and techniques associated with them are used to create meaning;	Art, The School News, Looking After Chicks, Space Travel, Vote For Me! Natural Disasters The Sherman Shrinker, Whales on the World Wide Web, Insects, The Apple Ad, Making Dips
3. create a variety of media texts for different purposes and audiences, using appropriate forms, conventions, and techniques;	Art, Paint My Room!, Trash or Treasure, Insects, Snails, Spike and the Big Dog, Looking After Chicks, Rosie Moon, Animal Diggers, Staying Alive, Annie and the Pirates, Bird Watching, Under Sail, A Present for Dad, Animal Communication, Hot-air Balloons, The Magic Dragon, The Sherman Shrinker, Whales on the World Wide Web, Mice in Space, Making Pots with Dad, Saving the Rainforest, Dragons, Mice in School, An Apple Ad, Rock climbing, Moving Big Trees, Making Dips, Really Famous, Foods We Eat, Our New Year Dragon, Making an Animated Cartoon, The Rare Bird
4. reflect on and identify their strengths as media interpreters and creators, areas for improvement, and the strategies they found most helpful in understanding and creating media texts.

SPECIFIC EXPECTATIONS

1. Understanding Media Texts

By the end of Grade 2, students will:
Purpose and Audience 1.1 identify the purpose and intended audience of some simple media texts (e.g., this television commercial is designed to sell breakfast cereal to parents or soft drinks to children or teens; this picture book of nature stories is aimed at children who are interested in animals)	Art, Insects, The School News, Vote For Me! An Apple Ad, Making Dips
Making Inferences/Interpreting Messages 1.2 identify overt and implied messages in simple media texts (e.g., • overt message of an advertisement for shoes: Great athletes wear these shoes; implied message: If you want to be like these athletes, buy these shoes; • overt message on a billboard advertising brand-name clothing: These attractive people wear this brand of clothing; implied messages: Wearing this brand of clothing will make you attractive too; clothing makes the person; • overt message in a superhero cartoon: The hero is a tall, strong man; implied	The Grizzlegrots, Mice in Space, Mice in School message: Tall, strong men are like heroes)

Responding to and Evaluating Texts 1.3 express personal thoughts and feelings about simple media works and explain their responses (e.g., explain why a particular DVD/video or licensed character toy or game is more or less appealing to them than another, similar product)
Audience Responses 1.4 describe how different audiences might respond to specific media texts
Point of View 1.5 identify, initially with support and direction, whose point of view (e.g., that of the hero, the villain, the narrator) is presented in a simple media text and suggest how the text might change if a different point of view were used
Production Perspectives 1.6 identify, initially with support and direction, who makes some of the simple media texts with which they are familiar, and why those texts are produced (e.g., film production companies produce movies to entertain audiences and to make money; companies produce advertisements to persuade consumers to buy their products)

2. Understanding Media Forms, Conventions, and Techniques

By the end of Grade 2, students will:
Form 2.1 identify some of the elements and characteristics of selected media forms (e.g., a television commercial uses speech, sound effects, and moving images to sell a product or service; a print advertisement uses words and pictures to sell a product or service; in a television news broadcast, an anchor and reporters report information about events that have actually happened, and use film or video clips from real locations around the world to illustrate those events)	Art, The School News, An Apple Ad, Mice in Space
Conventions and Techniques 2.2 identify the conventions and techniques used in some familiar media forms (e.g., cartoons use animation and sound to make fantasy characters seem real; cereal boxes use bright, strong colours, bold type, and inviting pictures of servings of the cereal to attract customers' attention)

3. Creating Media Texts

By the end of Grade 2, students will:
Purpose and Audience 3.1 identify the topic, purpose, and	Sebastian's Special Present, Weather Watching, Trash or Treasure, The School News, Saving the Rainforest, An Apple Ad
