The Scholastic Literacy Audit

A comprehensive audit designed to challenge and support you in the teaching of literacy in your school.

Intended for K–9 principals and literacy leads, the audit examines each area of your school's literacy program. By completing the audit, you will receive:

- A comprehensive report that includes explanations of components and a summary of research for each area of a literacy program
- An assessment, completed by our National Literacy Consultant, Sue Jackson, of how your school is doing in each area of literacy development, highlighting where your school is performing well, and suggesting areas of growth
- A list of how Scholastic Education can help fill in any gaps that may have been identified
